PUBLICATION OF THE MALAYSIAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

THE MEDICAL JOURNAL OF MALAYSIA

The Medical Journal of Malaysia is published in March, June, September and December. The Journal is distributed to the Malaysian Medical Association and affiliated medical associations, university libraries throughout the world and individual subscribers. The circulation figure is currently 11,000 and is steadily rising with the increase in membership.

The journal sustains professionalism in medicine. It serves as the main avenue for regional research findings to be disseminated to the medical profession in this region.

The journal is distributed free to the Malaysian Medical Association and Singapore Medical Association members and affiliated medical associations, and upon subscription, to non-members.
